As with many parts of Ireland, Wicklow is drenched in history and heritage and one of the most famous examples of that is the Monastic Settlement of Glendalough. Also on this site you will find a Celtic High Cross. There will be time for you to walk around the settlement and take in the wonder that is Glendalough before moving on to the Meeting of the Waters. We will then make our way to the delightful village of Avoca that has long been known for its famous copper mines. It is also well known as the location for the recording of the BBC TV series Ballykissangel. This little village is well known throughout the country and the world. On top of everything else, it is home to Avoca Handweavers. Avoca is home to Ireland's oldest weaving mill founded in 1723. We stop to visit Mount Usher Gardens, with over 5,000 species of plants and shrubs from all over the world. Day 5 – A wee bit O'Blarney and Killarney.....

This morning after a hearty Irish breakfast, before we bid farewell to Waterford we will visit the new home of the House of Waterford Crystal, where we feel the heat of the furnace and marvel at the skills of the craftsmen. We then make our way west to the Kingdom of Kerry. A special photo stop will be made in Cork today. On route, we will visit the historic port town of Cobh. It is from this town that over 2.5 million Irish people emigrated. Many would have attended mass at the beautiful Cathedral overlooking the port prior to their departure. Cobh was also the last port from which the Titanic left on April 11th, 1912. We enjoy a visit to the Cobh Heritage Museum before visiting the village of Blarney and Blarney Castle. Climb the winding stairs of this nearly impenetrable fortress, kiss the Blarney Stone and be granted the "Gift of Gab". Explore the beautiful grounds and gardens that lead to Rock Close, Blarney Castle's secret treasure. Once you have walked up an appetite for shopping, head inside the "Blarney Woolen Mills"—30,000 square feet of retail space within one of Ireland's oldest and most authentic woolen mills. We travel on then through West Cork to Killarney, famous for its lakes and scenery. Tonight we enjoy dinner together at our hotel.

County Galway; and the Mweelrea mountains to the North in County Mayo, as well as, the views out to the Atlantic at the mouth of the fjord. The views of the surrounding landscape are beautiful. We then continue to visit Kylemore Abbey, a former girl's boarding school that is now in the care of the Benedictine nuns and is one of the oldest Abbeys in Ireland. by the Stuart family in the eighteenth century. It was intended as a compelling landscape feature to impress visitors as they approached the entrance to their Georgian mansion, Gracehill House. Two centuries later, the trees remain a magnificent sight and have become one of the most photographed natural phenomena in Northern Ireland. In fact, the iconic trees have been used as a filming location in HBO's epic series Game of Thrones, representing the King's Road. We travel on towards Belfast via the Glens of Antrim, known locally simply as 'The Glens'. It comprises of nine Glens (Valleys) that radiate from the Antrim Plateau to the coast. The US Secretary of State Hillary Clinton performed a ribbon cutting ceremony and unveiled a plaque to mark the reopening. We'll drive through West Belfast's Protestant neighborhood of Shankill Road and the Catholic neighborhood of Falls Road, where large vivid murals painted on the sides of buildings express the feelings that still run deep on both sides. Though the names of these areas were much in the news during 'The Troubles' the gate in the Peace Wall between them now stands open. This afternoon we take a visit to the Titanic Belfast, a state of the art interactive museum provides an unforgettable visitor experience. It tells the story of RMS Titanic, from her conception and launch into the River Lagan in 1911, to the tragic end of her maiden voyage a year later. We'll also enjoy a set tour on the estate. We then continue our journey to the 100 acres of beautifully manicured gardens and parkland – the setting for tonight's 19th Century Castle stay – Cabra Castle. Once we arrive at our Castle, enjoy your surroundings, whether it is a 'tea' on the terrace or a round of golf on the Castle's own 9 hole golf course, before enjoying a special dinner together this evening. Dinner and Overnight: Cabra Castle Hotel

Day 14 – The Boyne Valley and Prehistoric Newgrange.....

We enjoy a visit to the Newgrange visitor's center and an onsite visit to the passage grave of Newgrange We continue on to the Hill of Tara, where it is said that a quarter of the landscape of Ireland can be seen from the hill. Although few of its monuments survived the test of time, it is an evocative place, much celebrated in Irish myth and legend.

From here we travel to the historic ruins of Monasterboice, an early Christian settlement that was founded by Saint Buite in the 5th century. It was an important center of religion and learning until the founding of nearby Mellifont Abbey in 1142.
